

Happy Holidays!

Congratulations WCS – we made it to the break!

We pray you will have precious time with your families and enjoy and maybe even create some new traditions!

I have worked to help the students learn to become responsible digital citizens during this first semester. Below is an excellent resource to help guide your journey with social media, technology and screen time. I hope it will help you navigate our fast paced, ever changing world!

I want to challenge you to a device free dinner at Christmas! Click this link for a light hearted video and more information:
